Investment Community Anxiously Awaiting Spring Break for Wall Street Growth & Value Conference - March 3rd and 4th

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--LDV Capital Management is once again hosting the fourth consecutive Growth & Value Investor Conference, deemed "Spring Break for Wall Street." Hundreds of attendees are projected to gather on the evenings of March 3rd and March 4th, at the Sheraton Suites Cypress Creek Hotel, in sunny Fort Lauderdale.

"Our Spring Break for Wall Street event two years ago had approximately 1,000 people in attendance. With two weeks to go, many of those people are anxiously awaiting this year's event. As they very well should!"

"Our Spring Break for Wall Street event two years ago had approximately 1,000 people in attendance. With two weeks to go, many of those people are anxiously awaiting this year's event. As they very well should!" stated James DePelisi, Founder of LDV Capital Management, who is hosting the event. "Whenever you get a cadre of credible companies, all presenting under one roof, it truly becomes an accredited investor's and money manager's due diligence dream."

20 plus, public and private companies, citing 10 industries, plan on conducting corporate power point presentations and breakout meetings to the financial community, led by New York Stock Exchange staple companies: Aflac (NYSE: AFL), Brandywine Realty Trust (NYSE: BDN), Fidelity National Investment Services (NYSE: FIS), and retailer Chico's FAS (NYSE: CHS).

Other companies presenting include: Aethlon Medical (OTCBB: AEMD), Athersys (NASDAQ: ATHX), Aurizon Mines (AMEX: AZK), Claude Resources (AMEX: CGR), Data Storage Corp. (OTCBB: DTST), EcoBlue Products, Inc

(ECOB.OB), Fronteer Gold (AMEX: FRG), Heska Corporation (NasdaqCM: HSKA), Home Choice (NASDAQ: HCII), Lucas Energy (AMEX: LEI), Nevada Gold & Casinos, Inc.
